About the event
IET International Radar Conference 2020 will be held on 4-6 November 2020 in Chongqing city, China. This is the fifth IET International Radar Conference series in China after the first four successful conferences held in April 2009, Guilin, April 2013, Xi'an, October 2015, Hangzhou, and October 2018, Nanjing, respectively. The conference aims to introduce the latest technological development and academic research hot issues of the radar technology, especially the latest researches and applications of civilian radar technology. It will provide a platform for radar experts and technicians to exchange ideas and achievements. All accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings and be submitted to IET Inspec and IEEE Xplore. After the conference, the papers will be submitted for EI Compendex.

IEEE International Geoscience and Remote Sensing Symposium (IGARSS2020)

IEEE Radar conference (2021)

The screenshot shows the IEEE RadarConf 2021 event page. At the top is a banner for 'ANNOUNCING THE 2021 IEEE RADAR CONFERENCE ATLANTA, GEORGIA, USA' with the tagline 'Radar on the Move'. Below the banner, the event title 'RadarConf 2021' is displayed, along with the IEEE Radar Conference logo and the text '292 days left'. The page provides the event date (5/10/2021 - 5/14/2021) and venue (Atlanta, Atlanta GA, United States). A paragraph describes the conference as the most important scientific conference in the field of radar technology. The website URL is provided as <http://radarconference21.org/>. There are sections for 'Future Dates' and 'Organizers'. The 'Future Dates' section shows 'RadarConf 2022' for '2022-5' with 'TBD, TBD' for the location. The 'Organizers' section lists the 'IEEE Aerospace and Electronic Systems Society (AESS)' with their address (3 Park Avenue, 17th Floor New York, NY 10016-5997, New York United States), telephone number (+1-212-null), and website (<http://www.ieee-aess.org/>). A 'Previous Dates' section shows 'RadarConf 2020' for '9/21/2020 - 9/25/2020' in 'Florence, Italy'.
